Hack #1: Automate Your Video Creation

Creating awesome videos can be a real grind, not to mention an expensive one. But check this out! You can automate your video creation process with a few clicks and some great tools. Here's how:

Use video creation platforms like Capcut, Animoto or Lumen5 that have customizable templates and automated editing features to help you create professional videos quickly and easily. These are some of the best ways to create high quality looking videos without having to have a ton of technical and editing skills.

Use AI-powered tools like Vidyard's GoVideo to create personalized videos for your prospects and customers automatically.

Tap into the massive libraries of stock footage, music, and sound effects on platforms like Shutterstock and Storyblocks or even Epidemic Sound to speed up the video creation process.

Successful businesses like HubSpot and Moz have harnessed the power of video creation automation tools to create really awesome video content on a budget. By automating video their creation process, you'll have more time and resources to crush other aspects of your business while still delivering quality video content to your audience.

Hack #2: Use Video to Nurture Your Leads

Ok, listen up! If you want to move your leads through the sales funnel more efficiently, you need to use video. Here's how to make it happen:

Create quality videos that speak to the needs and concerns of your leads, and send them key moments that resonates with them and influences them to take action.
